From Reclaimed Steel to Eco-Art:

An Unconventional Approach to Upcycling Material Waste

26 August 2022
10am – 11am (GMT +08)

Mr. William Koong

Environmental Activist | Steel Eco-Art Sculptor

- Founder, Ghetto Playground Collaborative Sculpting Studio
- Co-Director, Taylor's Me.reka Makerspace
- Former Chief Executive Office, Biji-Biji Initiative Group

William Koong is a master at upcycling who uses both conventional and unconventional methods in solving the knots in design and builds. William has been steel welding for more than 12 years and is a rising prominent figure to look out for in the world of waste art sculpting. William is also an environmental activist who directed multiple eco-art initiatives such as Ghetto Playground, Taylor's Me.reka Makerspace, and was formerly, the CEO of the Biji-Biji Initiative group.
